

Planning Your Future in Advanced Technology Matchmaking: Finding a Career That Fits

After you have explored the interactive activity relating to a field that appeals to you, complete the following steps to finding a career in that field that fits your skills and interests. Your responses may be used to complete the final assignment.

- Select one career path featured in this interactive activity that appeals to you and discuss the reasons why.
- Select one of the jobs that appeals to you within the chosen career path. Summarize the duties listed under the position description, and note the education and experience requirements.
- Write a paragraph or two on what you would hope to achieve in a career in this field.